MOSSMAN TELLS ABOUT HIS BID

His Friend Neglected Him---Tax Appeal Court---Chinese Libelee Ready.

Judge Robinson denied the motion of defendants in the Polyblank-Kawanakoa foreclosure suit to vacate the order of resale of a portion of the property. The order stands for the resale to take place at the Judiciary building at 12 o'clock today.

T. R. Mossman, who failed to put up a deposit on his bid of $2775, was called to the stand. He stated that he bought as trustee for his children, but the man who promised to back him failed to appear.

THOS. W. GAY'S ESTATE. Herman Focke, executor of the last will of Thomas William Gay, yesterday rendered his final account with a petition for discharge. He charges himself with $1032.80 and asks to be allowed $803.80. Judge Robinson appointed M. T. Simonton, Job Batchelor and John Marcellino as appraisers of the estate, to serve without compensation. As it is nearly all composed of 62 shares of Ewa Plantation Co. stock, the appraisal was a simple matter. Taking the stock at last selling price, $25 a share, with some little items of personality, the estate was valued at $1563 outside of the balance of $129 returned by the executor.

TAX APPEAL COURT. Judges Morgan, J. F. Brown and W. E. Brown yesterday afternoon heard the income tax appeal of C. G. Balleentyne, which took only a few minutes. It is on $955.50 claimed as losses. The Rapid Transit Co.'s case was not ready. It will bank its claim for depreciation chiefly on last year's evidence.

At 9 o'clock this morning the court will hear the appeal of Ewa Plantation Co.

A COMPLAINANT DEFENDANT. Akau answers Victoria Akau's libel for divorce. He says it was all translated to him in Chinese and he understood it. The allegations of their marriage and being the parents of two children he admits. He makes no objection to his wife's prayer that she have the custody of the boy Frank and the girl Leihulu, their son and daughter. Finally, he moves that the court hear the action today or as soon as convenient. In fact, he drifts into the proceedings as calmly as if divorce had always been for him the desired goal of matrimony.

THE SALVAGE CASE. Judge Dole was still engaged in hearing the reading of testimony in the Loch Garve salvage case yesterday afternoon. C. H. Olson of Smith & Lewis for the libelant and E. M. McClanahan of Kinney, McClanahan & Derby for the libelee were doing the reading, the only variation in the monotonous process being the settling of questions of evidence raised before the commissioner.

CUMMINGS CASE. Judge Lindsay made a further order in the Dickey v. Cummings case. It was that Wm. Kamooani Luther, who paid $220 on a lot bought for $435, shall have his deed on paying the balance with interest within thirty days.

TWO OLD SUGAR CORPORATIONS

Pacific Mill and Honokaa Ask for Amendments to Charters.

Pacific Sugar Mill, Ltd., and Honokaa Sugar Co., Ltd., each by F. A. Schaefer, president, and J. W. Waldron, secretary, have filed applications for amendments to their charters. The purposes mentioned as sought to be made those of the corporations are identical, being simply more enlarged powers of cultivating and manufacturing sugar, also of dealing with property and handling irrigation and transportation matters. The petitions give some history of the companies.

Honokaa Sugar Co. obtained its first charter on May 8, 1878. On May 8, 1893, the charter was renewed for fifty years. On December 19, 1896, the charter was amended so that the capital stock might be increased from $200,000 to $500,000. Another amendment was made on August 29, 1898, so that the company might handle property, real and personal, not exceeding one million dollars in value with a capital stock of the same amount. April 27, 1899, the charter was further amended to give a property control of three million dollars with capital of two million dollars and the power to increase the latter by another million.

At a special meeting on July 12, 1907, when the whole of the $2,000,000 of capital was represented, a resolution was unanimously adopted to apply for the amendment of the charter now proposed.

Pacific Sugar Mill's original charter was obtained August 19, 1879. On January 25, 1890, by an amendment the capital was increased from $200,000 to $300,000. May 21, 1898, an amendment was made so that the company might hold, purchase, convey, mortgage and lease real and personal property not exceeding in value at any one time $1,000,000 with a capital stock of $750,000.

At a meeting on July 12, 1907, the whole of the capital stock of $500,000 being represented, the company unanimously resolved to take steps for securing an amendment of charter as already mentioned.

These amended charters give the companies power to contract with other planters for sugar cane, sugar beets and other agricultural products, to do the milling for others, to buy and sell cane, beets, etc., as well as to raise all such raw material for themselves.
